

Did You Know?

Mario Andretti's "Autolite" – a '67 Mustang Fastback powered by a DOHC Ford Indy Motor – was bestowed the "World's Fastest Mustang" title

Ford Styling commissioned a "Goldfinger/007" Mustang showcar for 1966. This car was inspired by the film Goldfinger due to the antics of James Bond, Agent 007

What is a Mustang Broadcast sheet? This is the printout showing the VIN and the options that the car was built with. (AKA; build sheet)

The 1994 Mustang was offered in 11 exterior colors ranging from Laser Red to Canary Yellow

Where is the Build sheet located in the vehicle? It is often located under the trunk carpet and occasionally taped to the wiring harness under the dash

The Top NHRA racers utilizing Mustangs include Gas Ronda, Les Ritchey and Phil Bonner.